SKETCH OF THE VICTOR. ast evening, the twenty-eighth game of the tourna ment proper was played between J. Cyrille Dion, Champion of canadae, and A. H. Harrison, Champion of Missouri ulting in the defeat of Mr. Harrison, after a manly struggle resulting in the-defeat of Mr. Harrison, after a manly struggle by 56 points in 500. At the first call of the marker. Dion had accred 121, Harrison, 51 points. A run of 125, in which he made many fine shots and displayed exquisite skill in keeping the balls together, placed Mr. Dion 195 in advance, a gap which was gradually contracted by his adversary, who showed more caution in this thanda any previous game of the Tournament. When Dion stood at 487, having but 13 to go, and Harrison at 386, with 113 to make, the contest become very exciting. A good ran, finished by a caroless shot, placed Mr. Harrison at 420, but he was able to score but 6 points more, when Mr. Dion ran out amid great applanse.

As yactor in this series of games—of which he has won six and loat one—Mr. Dion becomes champion of all the champions, and to night receives the cue, the first prize of the tournament. He has riebly acried the beautiful prize, and is a gentlaman who will wear his honors with becoming modesty. Mr. Dion is but little more than 22, was a clerk in the wholesale grocory business in his native city (Montreal) until his 50th year, when he played his first match-game with one of Canada's best players. In this match he received 100 in 1,000, and beat his autagonist 903 points. At the tournament held in Montreal, July 12, 1865, he wan the champion cover averaging 30. In July of this year he met Mr. Willmarth, when the hen played his Mr. Willmarth being match was to have heen played; but Mr. Willmarth being

At the start Knightheod got the lead, but her ladyship quickly took the post of honor from him, getting over the ground at a slashing pace. In passing the grand stand-sheled by several lengths, Victoria being virtually out of the race. On the back stretch little Knighthood palled up his distance a little, but the mare again appeared to be going away from him. On again passing the stand she lad will a considerable lead, which she retained all along the back stretch and looked very much like a winner. These who had offered long odds began to look long faced and timorous as to results. Past the upper stretch and into the bone run she kept the front, but the little horse when near home-took the lead and won by two lengths. Son after the start, the saddle of Lady Dan Bryant slipped on to ber withers, and it is doubtful but for this casualty the mare would have won. Still the little horse is a good and grame one and though small in size, has the plock and endurance of the best of them, which he well proved in one of the races at Hoboken last Spring. Time, 4:254.

HUNDRED DOLLARS FROM THE PROPRIETRESS OF A DISREPUTABLE HOUSE IN PHILADELPHIA-TEMPO-RASILY COMMITTED.

Several months since one Charles B. Vosburgh, who is also known by the name of Atkinson, Fluschy, and other aliases, was in the habit of visiting a disreputable bonse in Palindelphia, kept by a Mrs. White, and fanally became were inlimate with the proprietress. One night, after refrires with Mrs. White, he by some means became possessed of the information that his companion then had in her possession the sum of $4,100, contained in a wallet, which, for greater security, she was in the habit of placing under her pillow on retring for the night.

On the following moreing, when Mrr. White above, the found that her companion had disappeared, and with him the wailed and its contents.

Nothing more was heard of Vosburgh, although officers made a vig land search for him in all the banding cities of the Union, until a few days since, when Deputy Marshall Borst of this city discovered his whereabouts. He at once sent an for Officers Jonkius and Schayler of the Philadelphin force. Late on Thursday the officers arrived here, and, during the ovening, arrested the necessed, who is said to have lately opened a livery stable in Brooklyne. Previous to that he had been engaced in driving a truck.

Immediately after the arrest one of the Philadelphia officers proceeded to Harrisburg for the purpose of procuring from Gov. Curtin a requisition on Gov. Festion for the delivery of the prisoner, in order that he may be taken on to Philadelphia to await his trial. This morning he was temporarily committed by Justice Manafield to await the return of the officers with the requisition.

The accumed denice having stolen the money, and says it was loosed winder in him by Mrs. White for the purpose of opening a house similar in character to the one kept by her. The police state that the past record of the prisoner has been anything aut a good one. None of the stolen money was recovered.

About a half-rule north-west of the village of Sing Sing lies one of the most beautiful wild wood spots to be found in Westchester County, so famous for the picturesqueness, di-versity and impressiveness of its scenery. It is called Bran-dseth's Grove, and here, on Thursday, was hell a grand Fenian pic-nic under the suspices of Assining Circle of the Brother-an pic-nic under the suspices of Assining Circle of the Brother-an pic-nic under the suspices of Assining Circle of the Brother-an pic-nic under the suspices of Assining Circle of the Brother-there are the pic-nic under the suspice of the Brother-there are the pic-nic under the pic-ni Grove being so eary of access, a very large and respecta gathering of the daughters and sons of Iroland was present y before noon.

The circles represented were those of Tarrytown, Peekskill, Nyack, Plermont, Haverstraw and other villages of the Hudson. A large platform for the accommodation of speakers was erected on the east side of an opening in the grove, and immediately in front of this was another and a much more extensive pitatform, on which the lovers of the art Terpsecherean paid anuals homoge to their adorable goddess.

The smeakers' stand was handsomely decorated with the

After several hours includence in dancing to the music of Loggett's Sing Sing Band, Mr. PATRICK CULLES, Center of the Desching (Sing Sing) Circle, amounced from the stand that a number of distinguished speakers; were present, and that they would now address the multitade. Dr. F. F. Covley of Farrytown, and formerly of the Corcoran Legion, was called on to preside. He accepted the honor in a few remarks, at the conclusion of which Gen. T. H. Gellason of the Irish Republican Army briefly addressed the audience.

He was not be said, an orator, and public speaking was not his forte. He had recently some from Ireland, and he wanted to go back again, which he was bound to do as soon as the Irish people of America should render the people in Ireland the assistance they so much need. His object in being present was to get those before him to assist him in returning to Ireland. [A voice—"We'll do it!"] All that the men of Ireland was the assistance of their friends in America, and having obtained that, the Irish Republican army would certainly win the freedom of the land every Irishman loved, no matter where he might be found. [Applause.]

Col. Thomas F. Bourse was the next speaker, a portion of Col. Thomas F. Bourse was the next speaker, a portion of people the green lag woma note over that place of the dors of another year. [Enthusiastic appiause.]

This concluded the speaking, and the gay and festive dance wis once more reamed and kept up ustil dark, when the multitude formed in procession and, preceded by Leggett's Band, marched to Tallestt's Hall, where, after another speech from Gol. BOUNKE, the exercises of the day were closed by giving three cheers for James Stephens, and for the "American people who sympathize with Ireland."

TESTIMONIAL TO MR. FREDERICK HUDSON.-Not long ago the Associated Press of this city passed a series of resolutions tendering the thanks of the members to Mr. Frederick Hudson for his zeal, efficiency, etc., as a member of the Executive Committee. These resolutions have been engressed very beautifully by Mr. John D. Williams. The whole forms very beautriny by Mr. other D. Warning. Let express the fine testimonial. The contral portion is a representation of the Western Hemisphere, and above and below this is most skillfully placed the text of the resultations. The border is formed by portraits of members of the Association and sketches of the various specifies for the transmission of news—the tribgraph, steamship, etc.—the whole connected by scroll work. At the top is the coat of arms of the city, and at the bottom is a plettre of a printing press. With the exception of the pertraits the whole is the work of the per.

RETURN OF THE STEAMSHIP OREGONIAN .- The new steamship Oregonian, the pioneer vessel of the Colifornia and Oregon Steamship line, which went on a trial trip to sea or Treesday Last, returned to this port after an absence of 40 hours. Loaving Quarantine she shaped her course for Cape Hears, where she arrived after a passage of 20 hours. During the tilp acathward she encountered a stiff sorth-easterly gale, in which she behaved splendidly, averaging 16 houts an hour. She is now lying at Pier No. 3 North River, taking in coal. She will leave for San Francisco on the 25th inst.

UNJUST ASSESSMENTS .- It is a matter of public comment and disapproval that the clerks in the New-York comment and disapproval that the clerks in the New-Lora Post Office are to be assessed to the amount of one fourth of one month's pay for political purposes. The same course will probably prevail throughout the Post-Office Department. It is one which is most unjust and burdensome to those who are unable to stand the draft than made upon small salaries. The clerks in the New York Post-Office are, rightfully, most of them soldiers who have carned the right to office by their endurance and exposures in behalf of the Government. The salaries they receive are not larries, many of them finding it For their wages they give a fair equivalent in work, and whether they contribute to any political fund or not should be a matter for each to decide for himself. The Postmaster.
